A DOUBLE OPERATION.

A few days since, a lady elegantly dressded entered one of the magnificent dry goods. establishments in Chestnut street, and depired to be suited with a cashmere shawlsemething worth fooking at—none of your fiddle-de-dee trash or trumpery knic-knacks, but an unicle up to concert pitch, and soaring at least to $400. This was at last accomplished, when the lady, giving her name and saying she was staying with her relative, the charming wife of a celebrated dentist, ordered it brought by one of the clerks to the M. D.'s forthwith. In the mean time the lady started off to the dentist's and having introduced herself, informed the enlightened operator that she had a dear brother who was sadly a martyr to the toothache-that he held 'forceps' in unutterable dread, that he invariably awooned at the bare mention of other-and that she has prevailed on the youth by means of a stratugem to come to his abode, at the same time requesting him to divert the youde's. attention at first by alluding to businese and other topics of the day.

All this was punctually promised on the part of the dentist and in due time a ring was heard announcing the arrival of the martyr. The lady, taking the hint, immediately started off, and meeting the shawl and bearer in the hall, laid hold of the former, at the same time telling the clerk to take the bill to her relative, who would settle it. The lady walked out and the clerk walked in, when the dentist said, Glad to see you my dear sir, pray sit down. Of course the steamer is not yet down-I pray you sit down.

The clerk was delighted to find that aristocracy was , but a name, and so he was in no hurry to be off. Here the shrewd dentist absolutely turned the conversation on teeth, and was pleased to find that his patient did not suspect his motives. 'By the by,' laughed the clever operator I am not busy this morning ;- permit me to look at your teeth.' Without amelnente hesitation the clerk seated himself in the sufferer's chair. ' You have toothache, now and then, I perceive, mused the doctor, edging over the martyr with the forceps concealed in his hand.

· Sometimes-not often, was the answer of the innocent.

* Oh, yes, I see , that is the tooth, I think added the cunning dentist, looking into the open mouth of his visitor.

· Yes sir, that is the one that used to ache when I was a child.

* Exactly-that one. Allow me againone moment. There!

It was but the work of an instant.-Crack !--crash !--the tooth was out; and the agonized victim sprang madity out of the chair at the throat of the doutist.

·Villain-murderer I-what do you mean? sputtered the unfortunate, with his mouth rall of blood.

. It's all over now? parloyed the den-

'Yes, sir, said the victim, 'and you may thank your stars that it is not all over with lyou. And now, sir (handing him the hill for the shawl) with your permission we will come to a settlement.

'Not a cent. sir,' expostulated the doctor,7 I have arranged it all with your sister.2

· What, sir ?' A denouncement followed, but the lady had got an hour's start and the shawl; and the agreeable companions parted not half so agreeable as they had met.

THE DAILY NEWS.

Newport:

FRIDAY MARCH 3, 1848.

BY O. F. JACKSON, 91-THAMES ST

III-Advertisers will please bear in mind that the circulation of the DAILY NEWS is more than DOUELE that of the Daily Herald, and greater than the combined cir-culation of the Daily and Weekly Herald. As one proof of this fact, the list of Letters remaining in the Post-Office is advertised in the NEWS, as BY LAW REQUIRED.

[Correspondence of the News.] New York, Feb. 29th, 1849.

FRIEND JACKSON :-The weather to-day is somewhat like such as we may expect to have in March. It is not cold, yet it is rather uncomfort able, from the squalls of wind from the N. W. Hit were not for the rain and snow which fell last night, we should not darp venture out to-day, for fear of the dust .-However, the mud is fast drying up und transformed into powder, and if old March should come in like a lion, he will find means enough to convince all that he is the most unpleasant month in the calender. The great agitating topic of the day, is. " who shall be the Whig candidate for the Presidency." This question kicks up considerable of a dust. Large meetings have been held by the friends of the "Great Harry," and also by those of " old Buena Vista." The claims of each have been set forth in most eloquent language. The ball set in motion for Mr. Clay, keeps " rolling on," and proves that " the same old coon" has friends yet, in the Whig ranks. Taylor's friends stick to him like wax ; but a voice from the land of Penn crice about for the "Hero of Chippewa," and a pretty lond voice too; so away goes a ball for Gen. Scott, and one too that may prove "hosty." but it must command attention.

Here in Gotham, the papers are quarreling among themselves; which, at first. amused us bystanders; but now grows tiresome. Greely (Clay,) and Webb (Taylor,) are pomelling each other most unmercifully, about politics. The Express reensionally gives Webb a sly poke in the tibe, which draws nim off, and gives Greely time to catch his breath, and after all that is said by either, in lavor of oragainst Clay and Taylor, the public think just as much of them as ever. The attempt to manufacture public opinion by such lavish abuse of each others condidates is mean.-The people know them both. The Tribune, however, has confined the abuse on its part mostly to Mr. Webh; while the Courier has not only accused Greely of cheating and treachery, but has included Clay. Anything for excitement.

Meanwhile the Democrate keep dark. and quietly try to heal the eplit in their party; but presently thera will be a voice hear i from old Tammany, which will rouse the lion, and then lank out for squalls. The Rucket Club, are to give a magni-Scient hall, this evening in the splendid room of the Clob, which, from its novelty. has attracted great attention. It will be attended by the beauty, fushion, and tuste of Jassanica dom.' The court is arranged in the form of Saladin's tent, or the chief of the Knights Templars and adorned with white and gold Acabesque ornaments, and splandid lastres. The members have con descended to admit a few "outsiders," for " this night only." who have to pass the ordeal of an examination before a select committee. The qualification, is birth. chi. fly; money not objected to however; but the aristomacy af wealth, is not, in itseit sufficient, in this instance. The blood; carrys the day.

Then there is in he a grand fancy ball at the Astor Place Opera on the 6th of March which is to be ender the unanagement of the supportent." Nane to be admitted noless in custome except the old folks. The amphithentre is to be open to all who chose to pay one dollar to see how things are dor e under the directions of a Lady Patronesses" of the " upper ten."

The Broadway theatre, having had good, acting and a good selection of plays, since the change of management, has succeeded in drawing full houses. This beautiful house is becoming the most popular theatre in the city, and from the patronage it has received lately, it must prove profital le.

they are now sa soping the sawdust off the stage. Buth commences the session with bill out of ours.

Mr. and Mrs. Brougham, supported by most of the old company.

I have spun this out rather longer than I intended, so I will out the thread and stop COSMOPOLITE. Yours &

You can well imagine that the announce ment of the death of that good and venerable man John Quincy Adams, has cast a gloom over our entire city. Much sympathy is also felt and expressed for the severe affliction that has fallen on Mr. Webthe end intelligence of which reached him printer named Gillespie, of Engine No 2, at nearly the same hour. How often is verified the enying, " troubles seldom come ; singly." Since Hronens Sursaparitla and Tonacto Hities. Since these Bitters have been offered to the public, there have been no less than four different inita-tions got up by as many different individuals, and sold for the genuine. The good qualities of Brown's Extract of Sursaparilla and Tomatoes, or Sarsaparilla and Tomoto Bitters, is already known and appreciated by phisicians and the pub-lic—particularly by those who have used them for Impurities of the Blood, had flumors, Sertoful-ous diseases, Billious affections, Custiveness, loss of appetite, &c. There has been no medicine sold that has given such general satisfaction. There cannot be the least doubt but this compound is the best alterative now in use. We have abundance of proof of that fact. There have been thousands of cases of impurities of the blood cared by this medicine. Some of them have been truly wonderful, where the patients have been given over as incurable. The above compound is not merely a common extract of Satsaparilla, but a very strong extract of the best Spanish Sarsapari'la, ex racted by an entirely new apparatus, made expressly for the proprietor, and used by no other person in this country. The subscriber having divoted a considerable pution of his time for twenty years to the study of the skin and the human hair, also the best means of treating and curing the same, and having, in the course of his experiments made various changes and improvements in the different articles approved as the best for such purposes, has at length, after laborious reserch and deep investigation, succeeded in bringing to perfection a composition, the virtues of which he challenges the world to excel. world to excel.

The Chemical Unit Invigorator is composed of a number of regutable ingredients of opposite qualities, and approved by the highest medical standata, the secret of blending and combining, which is known only to the subscriber, who has spand neither pains nor expense in bringing it before the public.

The Invigorator is an article in which a closusing and parifying wash is beautifully blended with a most delicate, silky and glossy muisture of the hair never before attained, yet free from the nimal grease or assential oils. It cleanses the pares of the skin, causes a healthy action of the blood vessels, nerves, &c., which the the last, thereby preventing battiness and gray heir, contestly frees the skin from scurf, dandruff and other cutaneous diseases, disposes the heir to curl, at d keeps it so—will positively change the herdest heir

Dear Sir:—You may perhaps if ink my statement almost incredible. My reason for fearing so is the fact of your never recommending your celly for the cure of confirmed consumption, but only in its primary or first stages. I have every reason to believe that I was in its last stage; my changing table me so: my friends told me so: as physician told me so; my friends told me so; as well did my symptoms, for they were truly alarming; and I feltfully convinced, that unless relief was obtained, I must soon be consigned to the was onalized, I must soon as consigned to the narrow conlines of the silent grave. But by the timely use of your remedy, I still live, and again enjoy my former good health. I had, indeed, dear sir, all the alarming symptoms you speak of as forming consumption in its worst singe; but by the use of your letter begin my I smeared.

the use of your Jelly, I again say, I am cured.
Yours, dear sir, with great sincerity,
ISAAC J. BEED.

And now, reader, having given you a plain statement, let me conjure you to pause, cre it is too late; try this Balsanic Lung Jelly—try it. I have put its price to you as low as I can afford; if you use it, and succeed in curing yourself. I shall have the gratification of having rescued another from consumption; and I hope, in return, that you will not withheld from me your name, and a statement of your curre. f your cure.
